Schedule

8:00 Parents & Recruits (the kids) arrive.

9:00 Muster in- Recruits are given their enlistment papers and are formed into companies and take their oath of allegiance.

10:00-12:00 Companies are drilled by members of Company H 13th Virginia, being taught the rudiments of close order drill, how to march, maneuver of arms and other activities that a recruit in a typical Civil War unit would be experiencing. During this time, companies also will be involved in infantry drills, learn about the cavalry and artillery as well as hear short lectures on Civil War history at different “stations.”

12:00-1:00 Hearty lunch of period Civil War fare served in camp style-Yum!

1:00-3:00 Continue drills as in the 10-12 period. Companies are with their drillmasters and continue participating in activities and preparing for the “Grand Battle.”

3:00 Grand Battle- Parents are encouraged to come and watch the grand finale of the Army Recruit's first day. Companies are formed into lines and go into battle against the Civil War re-enactors of the 13th Virginia. The kids win!

Living history and Tours of Fort Collier continue until 5pm.
